

Curriculum Subscriptions

Learning that honors dignity, purpose, and joy while having a lot of FUN!

Brookwood's Curriculum Subscriptions are designed to bring The Brookwood Way[®] into your organization/community through engaging, adaptable, and spiritually-rooted content that celebrates learning at every level.

Whether you're supporting adults with disabilities, building inclusive classrooms, or nurturing spiritual life in your organization, our curriculum offerings are crafted to inspire connection, creativity, and growth.

What to Expect

1. Brookwood Community College curriculum

This curriculum is tailored to multiple levels of understanding and includes:

- Visuals, music, and hands-on activities
- Engaging lessons that spark joy and curiosity
- Adaptable formats for diverse learning styles
- Themes that reflect dignity, purpose, and community

2. Spiritual Life curriculum

Created weekly, this curriculum keeps God at the center of our community and includes:

- Daily devotions for Citizens and Community Members
- A weekly video with visuals and hand motions
- A "Thought of the Week" with guidance on how to discuss it with Citizens
- Activities that foster connection between Citizens and Community Members (staff) and among Community Members themselves

Each subscription is designed to be accessible, uplifting, and deeply rooted in Brookwood's mission. Whether delivered weekly, monthly or annually (based on your needs), you'll receive content that's ready to use, easy to adapt, and FUN!

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Who are these curriculums for?

They're designed for organizations, churches, educators, caregivers, and communities serving adults with disabilities—or anyone seeking inclusive, purpose-driven learning tools.

2. How often will we receive the curriculum?

Subscriptions may be offered weekly or monthly, depending on your needs and the type of curriculum selected.

3. Can we choose one or both curriculums?

Yes. You can subscribe to the Brookwood Community College curriculum, the Spiritual Life curriculum, or both.

4. Is the content adaptable for different ability levels?

Absolutely. Our materials are crafted with multiple levels of understanding in mind, using visuals, music, movement, and hands-on experiences to ensure accessibility and engagement.

5. Does the Spiritual Life curriculum include guidance for staff or volunteers?

Yes. Each week offers a thoughtfully crafted "Thought of the Week," along with devotionals and activities designed to nurture spiritual connection across your community. You'll find clear, practical guidance for sharing these reflections with Citizens—whether you’re a seasoned leader or just beginning. Everything is prepared for you, so you can lead with confidence, compassion, and purpose.

6. Is there a fee for the curriculum?

Yes, there is a modest fee to access the curriculum.

7. Can we preview the curriculum before subscribing?

Terms Defined

1. The Brookwood Way®

We refer to Brookwood’s culture-in-action as The Brookwood Way®..... the invisible, secret sauce rooted in faith, dignity, purpose, and community. It is how Citizens and Community Members work, how we treat one another, and live out our mission every day.

2. Citizens

We refer to the adults with disabilities who live and work at Brookwood as Citizens. They are the heart of Brookwood, vessels through whom the Lord teaches us daily, reminding us that we learn far more from them than they ever learn from us.

3. Community Members

Our Community Members are the staff who live out The Brookwood Way® each day, forming the interconnected community that makes our mission possible. As members of one body, we work in an interdependent relationship supporting, learning from, and relying on one another to create a place where our Citizens can thrive.

4. Community Builders

We refer to participants in our Brookwood Way Conference and Center for Learning Offerings as Community Builders—those who are actively shaping purposeful communities across the street or across the world.
